

31st IMSC Ambassador Program Rules

1. The aim of the 31st IMSC Ambassador Program is to promote the Conference and share information about the IMSC among medical students.
2. The Ambassador agreement is signed between a person who wants to become the Ambassador and accepts the rules of the Program and the representative of the IMSC Organizing Committee.
3. Both Ambassadors and the Organizing Committee are obliged to fulfill their obligations included in the contract.
4. The obligations of the Ambassadors' are:
 - a) Promote the IMSC.
 - b) Invite possible participants for IMSC.
 - c) Properly represent the IMSC.
5. The obligations of the Organizing Committee are:
 - a) Deliver promotional materials to the Ambassador.
 - b) Inform the Ambassador about the information they should convey.
 - c) Provide a free fee for the Ambassadors who successfully invite at least 8 participants of the IMSC.
 - d) Provide priority during workshops and social program registration for the Ambassadors who successfully invite at least 8 participants of the IMSC.
 - e) Provide additional free access to the Gala Dinner for Ambassadors who successfully invite at least 15 participants of the IMSC.
6. Other obligations might be added by bilateral agreement.
7. All issues not mentioned in the rules are solved by the discussion and bilateral agreement.

*Successful invitation means that the invited person takes part in the Conference.

